Bobby Lee once dreamed he flew
Upon a beam of shining blue.
He floated through the stars awhile,
Until he reached a magic isle.

The first friend that he went to greet
Was a lamb with purple feet.

He found a lion and a bear,

And then a deer who knew a hare.

A pig was playing with a fox.

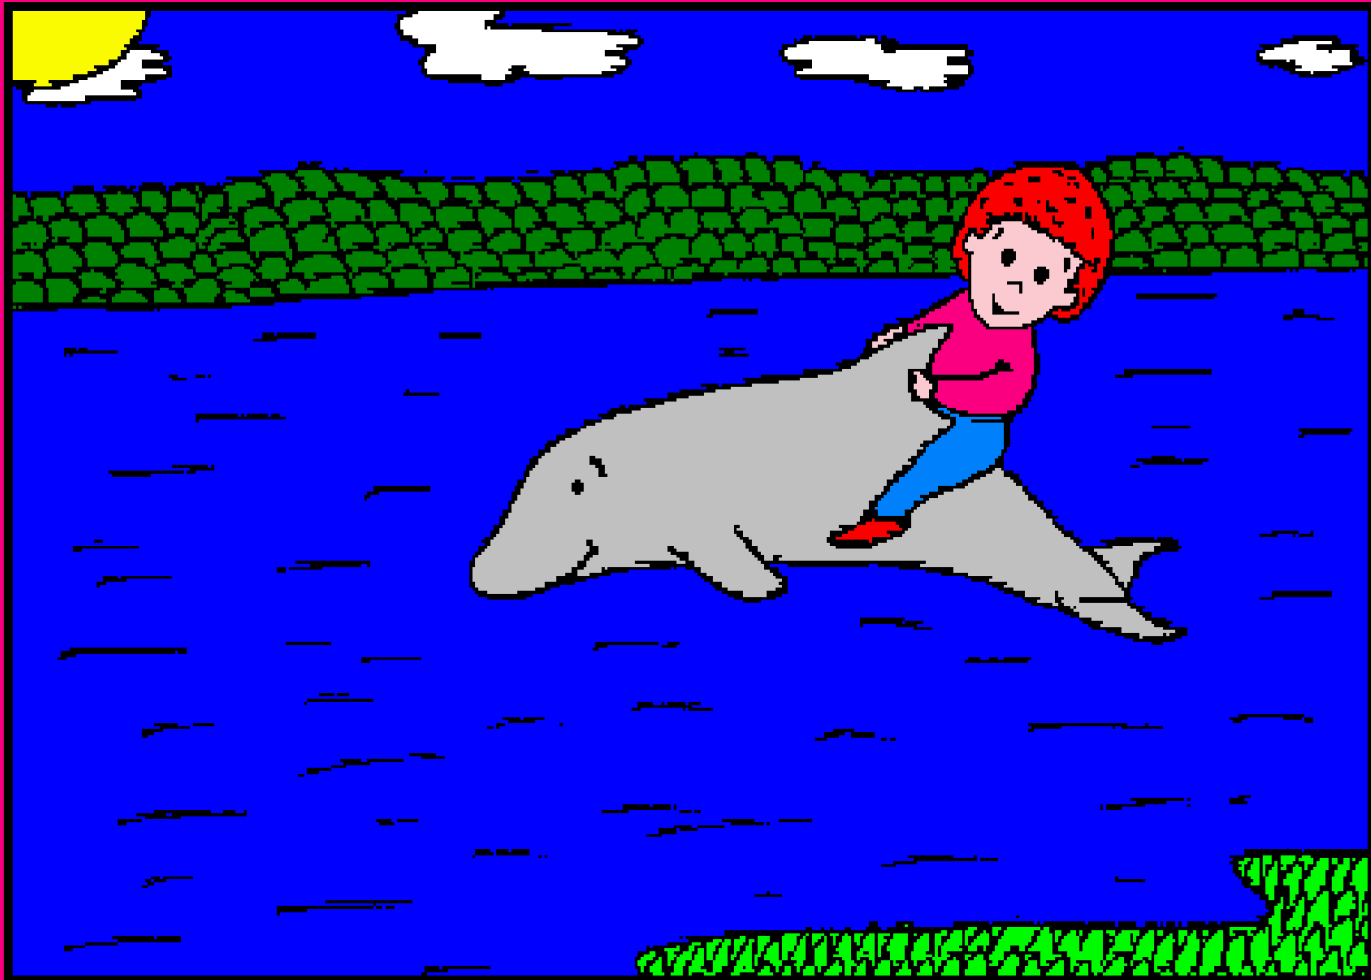

And here's a giant smiling ox.

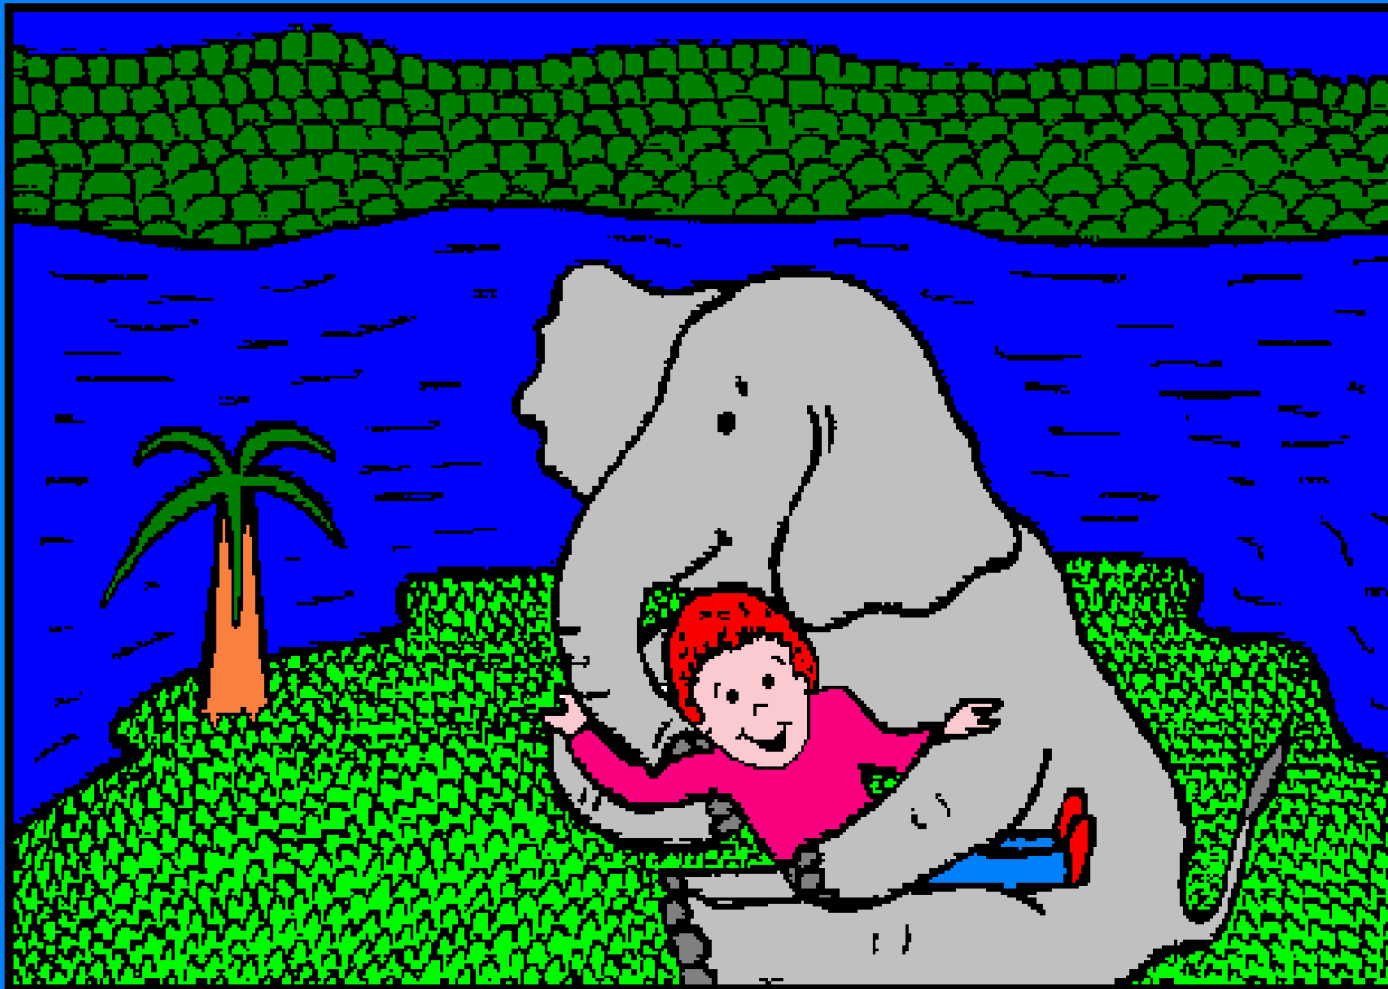

A camel took him for a ride.

A tall giraffe was like a slide.

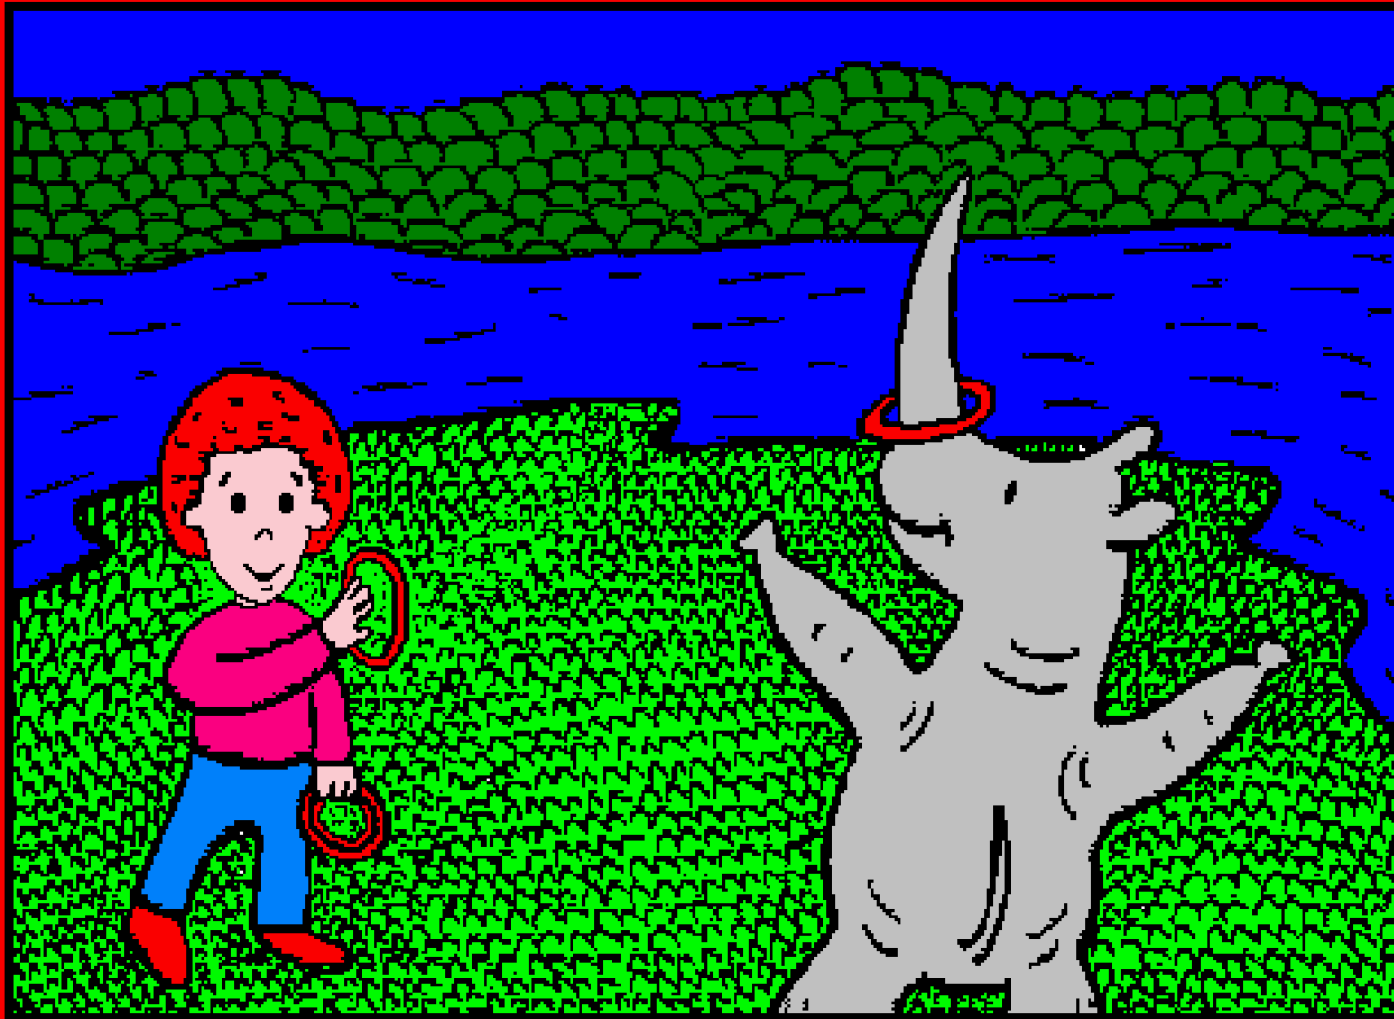

A dolphin took him for a swim.

An elephant kept tickling him.

He helped a sloth to gather moss.

And with a rhino played ring toss.

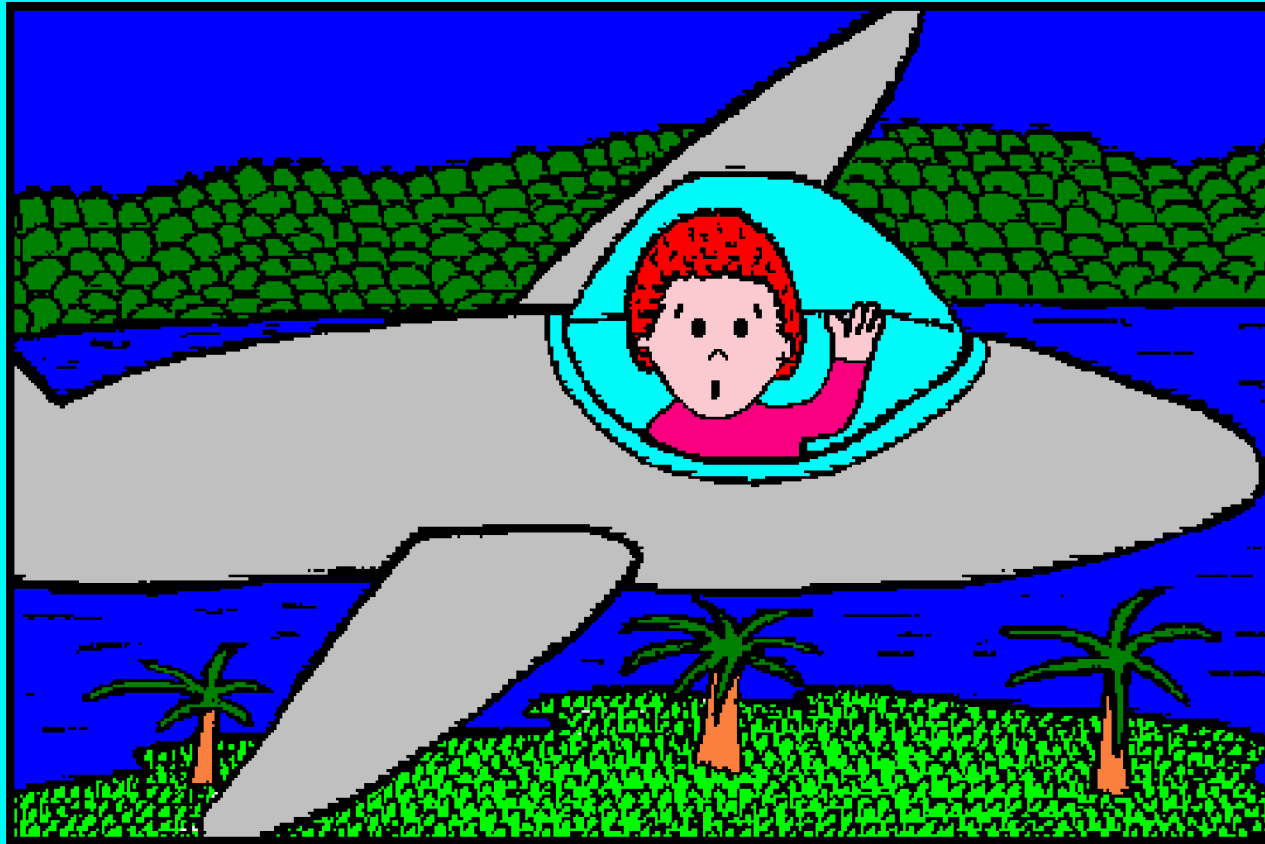

He wished that life
was more this way.

His friends said peace
on earth could stay,

If people tried
in all they do

To work to make this wish come true.

But then an airplane crossed the sky,
And all his friends just waved goodbye...
Till Bobby Lee was all alone.
Then the airplane took him home...

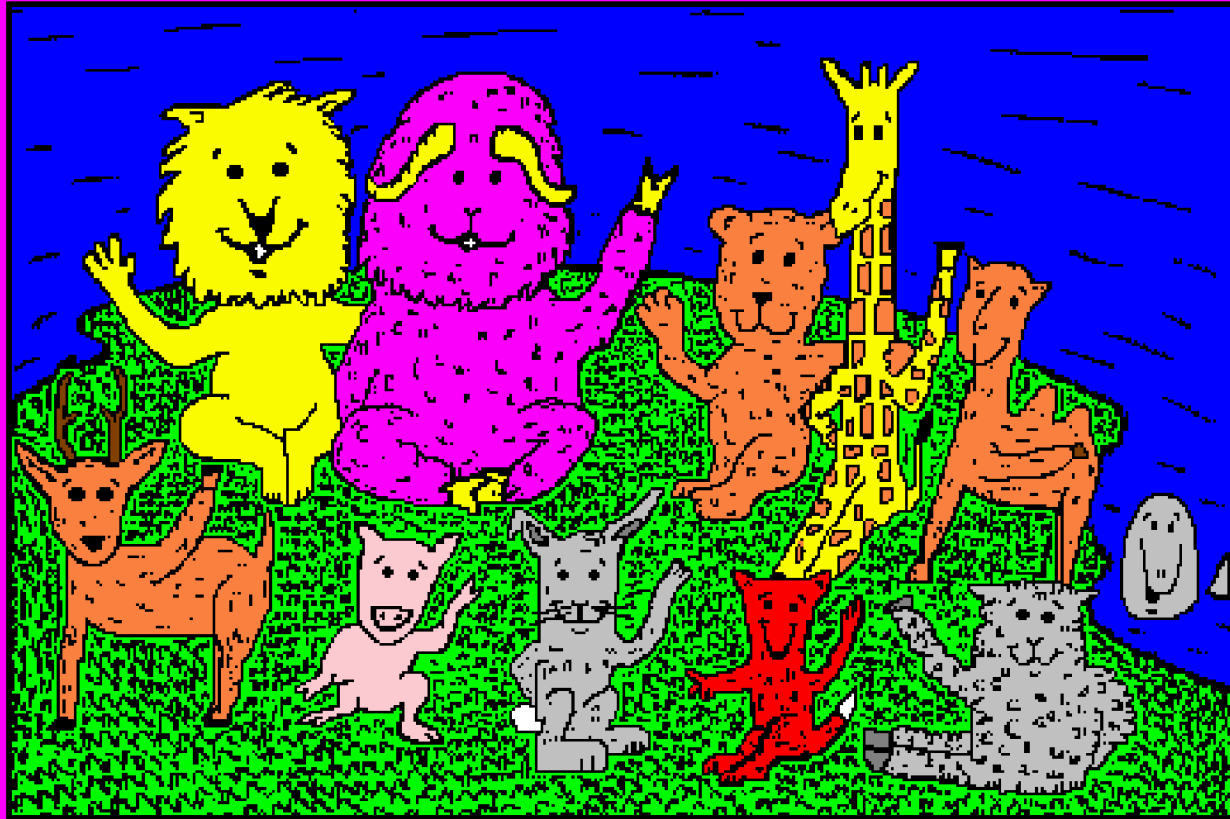

To his Mommy and his Dad
Who were so happy and so glad,

They had a party and parade.
All the children laughed and played ...

But soon the dream was gone and done.
He woke to greet the morning sun,
And Bobby Lee almost forgot
About the friends he loved a lot...

But when the sad times seem to start,
He finds his Dream Place in his heart.
It gives him hope and joy to say,
"Peace on earth will come some day."
